

UC BERKELEY EMERITI ASSOCIATION LUNCHEON

Professor Emerita Arlie Hochschild

“The Deep Story”

SATURDAY, November 3, 2018

SOCIAL HOUR AT 11:00 A.M. – LUNCH AT NOON – SPEAKER AT 1:00 P.M.

THE WOMEN’S FACULTY CLUB – STEBBINS LOUNGE

Arlie Russell Hochschild, UC Berkeley Professor Emerita of Sociology, is one of the most influential sociologists of her generation. She is the author of nine books, including The Second Shift, The Time Bind, The Managed Heart, The Outsourced Self, and, in 2016, Strangers in Their Own Land: Anger and Mourning on the American Right. Three of Hochschild’s books have been named as New York Times Notable Books of the Year and her work has appeared in sixteen languages.

In Strangers in Their Own Land, Hochschild embarks on a thought-provoking journey deep into Louisiana bayou country—a stronghold of the conservative right. There she comes to know people who strongly oppose many of the ideas she champions. Drawing on her expert knowledge of the sociology of emotion, she helps us understand what it feels like to live in “red” America, and more particularly why the people who would seem to benefit most from “liberal” government intervention abhor the very idea. It is the “deep story” of that apparent paradox that Hochschild will take up in her UCBEA luncheon talk.

To guarantee your main course choice, your reservation must be received five days prior to the event. All lunch options are $28. This year our registration process will be handled by the Retirement Center. There are three options to register:
